

CPLEA project helps tenants deal with domestic violence

The Centre for Public Legal Education Alberta (CPLEA) is pleased to announce a new project to help victims of domestic violence.

The project will raise awareness of resources and services that landlords can use to prevent and respond to domestic violence on their premises.

Our partners include the Calgary Residential Rental Association, Stop Abuse in Families and the Alberta Council of Women's Shelters. This project is funded by the Alberta Status of Women.

For more information please contact Megan Siu at megansiu@cplea.ca

WWW.CPLEA.CA

NOVEMBER 23, 2017